“ I first met Cindy twenty-four years ago when we were both working at the Holiday Inn in Solomon's , Maryland. Little did I know that our friendship would last all these years.

Cindy was a truly great artist! Whether it was music, painting, dressmaking, floral displays, Holiday decorations, writing etc. she had a passion for all! Cindy also loved being on the water and just walking alone on the beach.

I know that Cindy is in Heaven now making God laugh and that one day I will see you again up there..

You will always be loved and greatly be missed!!!

Love and miss you so much!!

“ Losing my sister leaves a huge hole in my life. We were very different and didn't always agree, but we always had each others back. Missing her so much.

“ Aunt cindy was the most gentle and wild soul I had ever met. I will never hear Janis Joplin again without thinking of her. We miss you so much already.
