“ Dear Mr Scheffey , not a moment goes by that I don't miss your smiling face and “HEY” when I walked in the door . I miss our nightly episodes of wheel of fortune and jeopardy . Thank you for sharing your memories , meals , and off color jokes with me . I hope someone out there is able to know this same gift of love and kindness you allowed me to experience by being at your side and taking care of you . It was my greatest honor and pleasure not only to serve you as a neighbor but as a friend . Now i can continue to serve you by taking care of buttons . I'm sure your enjoying Heaven and until I see you there , I love you . Jody

“ As an Elder of Eberly's Mill Church of God it was my privilege to visit Alan many times at home or in the hospital. He always seemed to have a good attitude about his ailments and was always receptive to and appreciative of prayer. He knew the Lord Jesus and I know he has been welcomed to his heavenly home. Truly heaven's gain is our loss. Thank God for all of the good memories of Alan we share.

“ From Naomi Brenizer
10 years ago, Alan called me and asked me to go out to eat. From that time on we talked almost everyday. Alan told me lots of good stories of his life and the funny things he did. He had stories of growing up with two brothers and the tricks they pulled on their grandfather, who lived with them. He enjoyed camping and bowling on a team, everything he did had a funny story. Alan enjoyed living life, and he spread his joy to others. He brought a lot joy into my life, we went to a lot of places and saw a lot of things. I will miss my best friend very much. Alan, thank you for coming into my life, I love you very much. Naomi

“ Alan was a soft kind man. He listened well and did not judge. He shard many memories with me and our family . He was part of our family for many years. He played many card games with us even though some were not his favorites. We will miss your witty sense of humor Alan. Until we meet again ! All our love.

“ Alan became a good friend of my mothers. I'm sure life was lonely for her before she met Alan at Eberly's Mill Church of God. He became part of the family going on outings and out to dinner. Allen like to tell stories about when he was a young boy and the mischievous things he and his friends would get into. (Most did not sound as mischievous as some of my stories). Alan always seem happy. I don't ever remember seeing him get really mad. I was saddened to hear of his passed away. My thoughts are with your family, but I know he is in a better place.

“ Dear Mike and Scott,
Your dad was a special member of the Eberly's Mill church. We had the privilege of worshipping with him for many years. His quick wit was what I loved the most. He was indeed a special man. Love,

“ How fortunate am I to have had a father so special that I miss you this much? Sorrow is the sincerest form of love. My memories of you are like ice cubes. Frozen. Each day I'll pull out a memory and as it fades, just as an ice cube melts, I'll refreeze it so I can once again enjoy what it offers. Good night Pop-a-Roni and as we hang up the phone, after our weekly talks I offer one last I Love you.
