“ I have very fond memories of Alda. I knew her and Ted from when I was in high school as a member of Hampden Twp. fire co., to when I came home from the Air Force and became a State Trooper working undercover narcotics. I used to stop at the garage and Ted and Alda got a kick out of how I looked. I later started patrolling in the area and used to stop to visit Ted and Alda at the garage in Mechanicsburg. Because of Ted I eventually joined the Masonic Fraternity. Alda and Ted were very influential in my life. I will miss both of them.
