

Anna "Jane" Maslak

January 4, 1929 - May 10, 2024

Anna Jane (Rector) Maslak, 95, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and aunt, passed into the hands of God on May 10, 2024. Known to family and friends as Jane, she was born to Charles and Mary Elizabeth (Goggin) Rector and lived most of her life in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, before relocating to Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, to be near family in her later years.

She was a devout member of St. Columba Catholic Church in Johnstown and St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Mechanicsburg.

Jane was preceded in death by her beloved daughter-in-law Brenda (Dierling) Maslak and grandsons Joshua and Charles Maslak, as well as brothers Charles, Robert, Dennis and John Melvin (Annette) and sisters Catherine Baluch, Mary Spodinak (Frank) and Helen Locher (William).

She is survived by her loving son James W. Maslak and daughter Barbara (Maslak) Garofalo; grandsons Jacob Maslak, Robert Garofalo, Andrew Garofalo (Hayley Fulk) and Jeffrey Garofalo (Elizabeth) and great-grandchildren Luca, Ivy and Oliver Garofalo.

Jane was a great lover of children, family, music and dancing. In her youth, she won many dance competitions and was known to "cut a rug" even into her 90s.

She was a hard worker and a loving caretaker for her loved ones - a strong and independent woman well before it was the fashion.

Jane was a fun-loving, generous and kind soul who lived her life by the words "Refrain from worry and trust in God's loving care."

Anyone who knew Jane will remember her caring nature, quick wit, sense of humor and deep faith.

May she rest in peace with the loved ones who've gone before her and may God hold her in the hollow of His hand.

Services will be held 10 am, May 25, 2024 at Resurrection Catholic Church, 324 Chestnut St., Johnstown, Pa., followed by burial at Grandview Cemetery and a memorial luncheon at Aces, 316 Chestnut St., Johnstown, Pa.
