

Anthony L. White

April 28, 1980 - June 3, 2024

Anthony "Ant" Lamar White, 44, passed away on June 3, 2024. Anthony was born on April 28th, 1980 in Peoria, Illinois. He resided in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania.

Anthony's passion in life was cutting hair- he was a dedicated barber for over 25 years. He connected with all his customers and many remained loyal patrons. His open energy and his ability to listen made him the best at his craft, with his clients waiting for hours to get their hair cut.

Anthony enjoyed spending time with his friends, hosting parties to bring people together and share his love of music.

Anthony is survived by his mother, Krystal Rooduijn, his father, Jerome White, and his siblings, Thomas White, Torrie Nicholes, Tyty White, Darice White, Jerome White, Orlando Webster, Renitta White, and Tiera Claudin. He was a proud father to one beautiful daughter, Kristianah White, who he loved with all his heart, as well as an uncle to countless nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, June 15, 2024 at 10 to 11:00 am at Musselman Funeral Home in Lemoyne, followed by a backyard reception in Mechanicsburg.

“ It is with great sadness and heartache for Ant's family and friends to hear that an angel on earth has left us. Ant was a soldier in all his dealings. His spirit exuded the confidence that every man and woman endeared. His adventures were replete with kindness, luck and perseverance. He loved his family, his work, and was a good son, father, Uncle, sports fanatic, and a friend to so many and was a great barber who fit you in.

One of my favorite quotes by an unknown author that reminds me of Ant and so many who've gone before reads:

Don't grieve for me now, I am free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy! A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, those things I too will miss.

Don't be burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Clippers up! RIP, my man!

“ Words cannot describe how I am feeling right now. My heart is so broken. I cannot believe the news I just received. I cannot believe you are gone. My best friend of forever. I messaged you on Facebook and texted you a week ago because you were too quiet. This silence is deafening. You have been my phone partner forever, my go to to vent to about every and anything. We were each others listening boards, each others motivational speakers, each others arguing partners. This just really can't be real. My heart breaks for your mom and Thomas as well. I'm sending you both all the love, strength and prayers, I can. I will keep you all in my prayers. Christiana I hope to the lord above through all the posts you will know how good of a man your daddy was. He had a heart like no other! He was a fighter! I always said he was like a cat with 9 lives! His smile when he would show it lit up a room! I will forever love and miss Anthony. ❤️🙏💔😭

“ I remember when I first met Ant, through my husband who worked with him. he said hi and I looked at him like he had 8 heads cause I didn't know him. from then on we had banter between us. he would call me mean and I would respond with funny banter. His humor will definitely be missed. My condolences to his family, may Jesus give you guys a sense of peace.

“ I have searching for the right words to say. I knew Anthony when he was a toddler. I remember his smile and laughter. Watching him sit on his mom's lap. Krystal and Jerome I'm so sorry for your loss and my heart breaks for you. Praying for strength and peace. I love you

“ My condolences to his family and all those that this massive loss has left a hole in the hearts of. We met years ago through my brother and through all the ups, downs and in-betweens life has thrown us, he was one of my most cherished friends, and always will be. One world, one life, one love...always
