

Barbara M. Hegedus

November 19, 1937 - September 28, 2025

Barbara M. Hegedus (Klaum), 87, passed away peacefully on September 28, 2025, in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. She was born on November 19, 1937, in Hempstead, Long Island, New York, to the late George Klaum and Blanche Osborn Cole. Barbara was an antique dealer for 35 years, doing shows from Adamstown PA, Brimfield MA, The Pier Antique Show in NYC, and several surrounding states. She was one of the original longtime vendors at the Antique Market Place of Lemoyne, which she loved and where she made many friends.

Barbara was kind, loving and generous. She made friends easily. A woman of many talents and hobbies, she was a businesswoman, gardener, speed reader, and painter. She had a sharp wit, a quick tongue, and a penchant for vodka martinis with extra olives. She is survived by three generations that will miss her dearly and remember her fondly.

Barbara is preceded in death by her parents, as well as her husband Robert William Hegedus (5/26/37-9/26/12). She is survived by her daughter, Lori Hegedus of Lemoyne, son David and his wife Maria Hegedus both of Mechanicsburg, daughter Sandra Haller of Huntingdon; her grandchildren Erika Hegedus, Amanda Hegedus-Solomon, Emily Hegedus, Tyler Hegedus, Jessica Hegedus, and Stephanie Hegedus, Alexandra Haller. Also her great grandchildren Derek, Gianna, Kierra, Henrietta, Ethan and Oliver.

Tribute Wall

LE

“ We were very sorry to learn about Barbara's recent passing - she was a lovely person. We send our condolences to her family in their time of loss.

-Sincerely, the staff at Friends of Bonobos

Lizzie Ellis-Furlong - October 28, 2025 at 04:40 PM

RF

“ Lori, my condolences to you on the passing of your mother. May the good Lord give you peace and comfort and bless you. Ron Felker, PAWC (Retired)

Ron Felker - October 01, 2025 at 07:57 AM