Betty J. Deimler, 76, of Mechanicsburg, passed away, Wednesday, February 11, 2015 at home. She was the daughter of the late, Emma (Brubaker) and Faber Deimler, Sr., born on November 1, 1938 in Harrisburg. She was a graduate of John Harris High School and attended business school. She retired as an administrator at Gannet Fleming.

Betty attended the Church of the Brethren in Harrisburg as a child and was a Christian woman. She was a loving daughter, sister and mother who lived her life helping others. In place of exchanging gifts, she and her daughter, Kimberly made gingerbread houses for the Childrens Methodist Home at Christmas, peanut butter pies for the nuns, kaleidoscope bunnies at Easter, and gave books to patients receiving dialysis at Liberty Dialysis. Betty had a genuine love for everyone and was there to help anyone in need. Her love was reciprocated by all those who met Betty. Her positive attitude and can do spirit has touched many lives. She also enjoyed spending time with her family and eating at TGIF. It provides great comfort to know that Betty is in heaven getting a bubble bath where the water never gets cold, and the bubbles never end.

Betty is survived by her daughter, Kimberly Deimler; brother, Faber Deimler, Jr.; sisters, Jane Wheeler and Joanne Dell and many adored nieces and nephews. '
