

Carl A. Galasso

February 17, 1933 - October 28, 2020

Carl A. Galasso, 87, Camp Hill, PA passed away in the comfort of his own home on Wednesday, October, 28, 2020. He was born on February 17, 1933, in Johnstown, PA, the son of Ralph Galasso and Ann (D'Ettorre) Galasso.

Carl graduated from Johnstown High School and proudly served in the U.S. Air Force. He retired from Glosser Steel Services Center in Camp Hill, PA, where he worked in Sales.

Carl was a member of St. Theresa Roman Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus.

Carl is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Delores (Pepley) Galasso; along with three children; Mark

Galasso, Mary Ann Messersmith, her partner Tim Moore and Theresa (Tom) Leach; two grandchildren,

Melissa (Brett) Napoli and Veronica (Robert) Probst; three great-grandchildren, Dominica, Filomena and

Raymond Napoli; one brother Ralph (Carolyn) Galasso and one sister Theresa (John) Hodos; several nieces and nephews and two cats; Lucy and Smokey Galasso. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Carl used to love to fish. He enjoyed eating, drinking/slurping coffee, singing, playing the harmonica, listening to opera music loudly, watching westerns and old movies, but mostly spending time with his children and grandchildren/great-grandchildren whenever he could. He was a man of little words, but had an infectious smile, the kindest eyes and a warm heart. He endured a lot over the last three years, but he never complained once. He will be greatly missed.

A special thank you to the people at Hospice of Central PA, Harrisburg, PA, for their loving care and support during his final months.

Memorial services for Carl will be held at noon on Thursday, November 5, 2020 at St. Theresa Roman Catholic Church 1300 Bridge Street, New Cumberland, PA 17070. Visitation will be from 11:00 – noon at

Musselman Funeral Home 324 Hummel Ave, Lemoyne, PA 17043. Burial will follow in Rolling Green

Cemetery 1811 Carlisle Rd, Camp Hill, PA 17011.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Central Pennsylvania, 1320 Linglestown Rd, Harrisburg, PA 17110.

The Musselman Funeral Home is Honored to Serve The Galasso Family. 324 Hummel Avenue, Lemoyne, PA 17043.

“ Dad,

It has been a year since you went to be with the Lord. I miss you every day, but I know you are in a better place. I visit your grave all the time and I keep a light on it, so when I leave your house at night I can see where you are and it brings me comfort.

I asked God to send me signs, so I knew you were okay. He would send me cardinals. One day when I was going to the cemetery and I was really missing you, I asked God for another sign. There perched on top of the Jesus statue's head was a beautiful, bright, red cardinal singing his heart out. It was a beautiful sight and his singing comforted me. I felt so much joy at that moment. I took pictures and recorded his song, so I can listen to it when I'm missing you.

I love you and miss you,

“Dad, I write this with a heavy heart. First and foremost, thank you for being my dad. Our bond became stronger over the last few years. We shared more laughs and I learned more about the man you were. I am honored to be your daughter and was able to care for you in your last years.

My father died knowing he was loved. My brother, sister and I cared for him and were by his side during every hospital and rehab admission, and there were a lot of them. He was strong and never complained. He was a mystery the doctors couldn't figure out and they wrote him off, but he always fought hard to live and prove them wrong. In the last few weeks of his life, everyday you would see a piece of him leaving him. It is heartbreaking. Your eyes fill up with tears, but you stay strong for him, caring for his every need. You know the end is coming soon, but no matter how much you try to prepare for it, when it happens, it takes a piece of you too.

He told me when he could speak that he was talking to the angels and he was going home. He could see the cross. His last words to me were a week ago when I told him I loved him and he told me he loved me too. A few days later, I was with him when he took his final breaths, I gently stroked his face, kissed his cheek and told him I loved him and everything would be alright.

He loved the song "Fly Me to the Moon", but the late, great Frank Sinatra. I would blast it in my car for him and he would sing out loud, "Fly me to the moon, let me play among the stars." Dad you can go where ever you want to now!

I love you to the moon and back! Rest in peace!

Your loving daughter,

Theresa
