

Cynthia K. Shocker

December 5, 1945 - June 6, 2026

Cynthia K. Shocker, 80, of Mechanicsburg, passed away at home on June 6, 2026, with her daughter, granddaughter and grandson by her side. Born December 5, 1945 in Harrisburg, she was the third child born to William and Dorothy (Beil) Boyer.

She was a proud graduate of John Harris High School, Class of 1963. She married her love, James E. Shocker Jr. in February of 1971. Sadly, Jim passed away in January of 1981 just shy of their 10th Anniversary.

Cindy worked as a shirt presser for various dry cleaners until her retirement. She spent many hours with romance books and crossword puzzles. She enjoyed watching her TV shows....Little House on the Prairie, The Walton's, Murder She Wrote and the Game Show Channel. She enjoyed watching wrestling with her daughter every week. She loved anything with elephants and collected shirts, earrings and statues all elephant related. And let's not forget her love of potato chips and pretzels. But most of all she loved her family---her children, her grandchildren, sisters and brothers.

Cindy has joined her husband, Jim, her parents, William and Dorothy, brothers; William Jr., Michael and Steven and sister; Janice in heaven.

Surviving are her children; Eugene and Sharon, 6 grandchildren; Jeff, Leo,

Daisy, Shawn, Blossom and Violet Coover. Her sisters; Annette Hippensteel of Middletown and Benda Kohr of Elizabethtown, as well as many nieces and nephews.

No services are scheduled at this time.
