

Cynthia Lee Wolfe

October 12, 1951 - January 7, 2022

Cynthia Lee Wolfe, 70, of Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on Friday, January 7, 2022, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She was born October 12, 1951, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to parents Donald Wolfe and Doris Jean (Wentz) Wolfe.

She is survived by a sister Jacqueline Decker, a brother Jeffrey Wolfe, wife Judith, numerous cousins in Maryland, and her lifelong friend, Ruth M. Miller. She was retired as a bookkeeper for Footlocker after 50 years.

She enjoyed her work, doing yardwork, and traveling to Stone Harbor in the summer. And she loved her dogs Mannie, Molly, and Utley, as well as the Phillies, and the Eagles.

Memorial contributions may be made to an Animal Charity of your choice.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

LV

“ I am truly saddened to hear of Cindy’s passing. I worked a lot with Cindy throughout our careers at Kinney/Woolworth/FootLocker. She was always a pleasure to work with and to spend time with discussing her trips etc. She will definitely be missed at our monthly retirement lunches.

With my Deepest Sympathy, Lois Vaccaro

Lois Vaccaro - January 12, 2022 at 04:49 PM

RW

I was so sorry to hear of Cindy’s passing. 😞 She was always happy n had a smile on her face. She just started to come to the different retirees luncheon. She will be missed that’s for sure. RIP Cindy!

With my Deepest Sympathy and Prayers.

Millie Walters

Robert C Walters - January 12, 2022 at 05:22 PM

DO

I am sadden to hear about Cindy's sudden passing. I will always cherish the memories of working with her at Foot Locker. She had such a heartfelt laughter and beautiful smile in addition to maintaining a positive attitude no matter what was thrown her way. Cindy has touched so many people throughout the years and she will be truly missed!

Debora Ortoleva - January 12, 2022 at 08:43 PM

RB

“ So very sad to hear about Cindy. I will always treasure all the Carlisle basketball game memories and traveling all over the state to watch Jeff Lebo lead the team to 4 state championships. Cindy was a wonderful person and will be missed
Roberta Book

Roberta Book - January 12, 2022 at 01:36 PM