

Eileen M. Daniels

September 16, 1923 - June 12, 2023

Eileen M. Daniels, 99, passed away peacefully at Masonic Village at Elizabethtown on June 12, 2023. She was born on September 16, 1923, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to William Dubel and Lakie Fry. Eileen graduated from John Harris High School, where she met the love of her life, Bob Daniels. After finishing nursing school at Polyclinic Nursing School, Eileen married Bob and became a devoted Navy wife for thirty years. Eileen and Bob had three children, lived across the East Coast, and even spent a short time living in Italy throughout Bob's Navy career. Lewes, Delaware was special to Eileen, visiting often for summer vacations with her family. She loved to cook, garden, play games, and host summer gatherings as well as holidays with her family. Eileen was also a faithful member of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Camp Hill. Though life was challenging at times, Eileen always made the best of it and enjoyed spending time with all.

Eileen is survived by her children Janice Huntsinger, wife of Don, Gary Daniels, husband of Tammy, and Brian Daniels, husband of Donna, six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and a niece and great nieces.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Masonic Village for their caring staff.
