“ This women was constant in my life since the day I was born. If we were not together, we talked on the phone almost every day. My grandma helped raised we with her other sisters, when my mom worked her butt off to provide for her children. I was blessed with so much love that others weren't not so lucky to have. You showed me family is important and we must take care of each other. So many crazy fun memories that I will cherish for the rest of mine, until we meet again. I love you grandma. Always.

“ I didn't know her very well as a kid. Later in life she and my mother were inseparable, and I got to know her a whole lot better. My fondest memory was of her making the trip to Missouri in her 80s to come and see the premiere of my feature film. She was a movie buff like her grandson. I love you, Grandma, and will miss your spirit. Your Grandson, William

“ My very best memory of my beautiful mother was the 1st time I actually got to meet and talk to her in my 10th year of school. My bff Kathie talked me into going skating with our school, she told me my mother was not working that night but she was. I was so upset I tried to avoid her but she got into a seat beside me in a booth were I could get out she told me I had to listen to what she had to say and when she was done, I was crying, I never knew onto that moment how much I had missed my entire life, and from that day she became my rock and I have cherished every second of everyday till the day she went to Heaven to be with all those who went before including my Husband Bob. Heaven has got another Angel I will love and miss her till the day we will meet again!!❤️❤️

“ Growing up we always lived close to Aunt Sis, and she made me feel as if her home was my second home, lots of love to go around. Mom would take me and my brothers over to visit her, Uncle Jack, Grandma Blough and Gloria almost every weekend. I have so many fond memories that it is hard to pin point a few special moments of a lifetime with her. Sis and Jack loved to Rollerskate at Rainbow Roller rink, so when I was a young girl she took me to see if I would like to skate also, I loved it! Skating was a fun thing to do on weekends with my brothers, cousins and friends for years to come. Sis was also a great dancer she could always out dance me and she could definitely out talk me, Lol! But Sis was never boring and was a lot of fun to hangout with. Sis had this natural talent that most people would love to have, and that was, she could make a new friend in in record time no matter where she was or what she was doing. I know me and my family will miss her beautiful smile, her contagious laughter, her funny way of saying I'm a old lady so I can do whatever I want, and she did! What a Zest for life she had. We all loved her and was so blessed to of had her in our lives. "We all gained another angel we know in heaven"

“ I will never forget the first time Ahriene met you when she was three. She would not eat meat and Andrew told her that hamburgers were made of potatoes to get her to eat them. You gave her a hamburger and when she told you that they were made of potatoes you laughed and said "no child, that is a cow, a big fat cow" and Ahriene cried.

One night when we were visiting you told us stories about skinny dipping in your early 20's and how different it was in the forties when you were in school. We loved to hear your stories of life in the past. You had a lively spirit and always said what you were thinking. We are going to miss our visits with you.

We love you!

“ Grandma, I will miss your smile and your sense of humor the most. Thank you for taking me to the ocean for the first time. You started my love Of the beach. (Nothing better than salty air and the sound of the waves crashing on shore)
We both love birds and shared stories with each other over different kinds. Now anytime I see/hear a bird I will think of you.
Love you grandma, rest easy. Thank you for sending that rainbow on Monday and the blue jay.

“ My sister, my friend, my rock,
The memories are so many though the years, we did everything together, she lived with me for 2 years, we had a blast, we did movies, always played poker on the weekends with Thelma, Vera, Sue
Scarlet,
Sis and I, we watched TV at night. We like the same shows till wee hours in the morning, went swimming , had cookouts , went dancing with Lisa her friends and ours, always fun. Did the casino which we liked. Never won a jackpot but still fun. Traveled to shore Sis, Vera, Joe, and I met Lisa and her friends there what fun we had. Wore them young ones out, couldn't keep up with us. Went to JR and Patty's in Norfolk. It was Sis, Thelma, Lonny, and I. They took us to the navy club. Sis and Thelma got all the attention from the navy guys wanting to dance with them. They had so much fun! Like I'm saying the memories are so many, can't name them all. My heart is broken but will heal in time. I did get to say my goodbyes. Amy let me talk to her and she heard me. I love her, miss her, and will see her again someday.

Always in my heart your sister, Linda
