“ Little man still continuing his helper duties, but now it's just with his uncle. Since Kaw-liga started walking, pretty much everywhere Jerry went Kaw-liga followed. Like when Jerry and my brother would go mow our yard or the neighbors' yard he would go along with them, take his little bubble mower along as well. He would follow Jerry or my brother from behind them with his bubble mower. As he got older, Jerry had showed him how to use the weed wacker. Jerry told Kaw-liga when it's running he can use it with only grown-up supervision. In the picture, he's pretending that he is weed wacking as he is supervising his uncle.
