“ I knew Glenn Miller from when I was a young boy and young man. My late Mother bought ALL her meats from him. Her name was Evelyn Goldstein. She LOVED him, and his quality meats. We used to kid that if Glenn ever needed to borrow money from a bank, that all he would have to say was "Evelyn Goldstein is my customer" and show how much she spent at his Deli. !!! Glenn was a most successful in business, but more important, he was ALWAYS considered to be a very good man, and treated everyone with such respect. His passing brought back a lot of memories. His name was a "household" name. Rest in Peace, Glenn. Your fine legacy is well intact!!! Attorney Corky Goldstein and family

“ Sherie, Rodney, Darlene and Mrs Miller. I am saddened by the passing of Glenn. I have fond memories of Glenn during the summer months in Brigantine. When I was younger I spent a lot of time around you guys and looked to Glenn as a father figure.. I can remember us having some fun and good times. CGem was a true family man. Everyone is in my prayers.
