

Harry James Stewart

March 10, 1955 - September 3, 2021

Harry James Stewart, born March 10, 1955 departed his earthly life on September 3, 2021. Harry was preceded in death by both his parents. The late Doris Jane Solomon Stewart Ganey and Harry Foutian Stewart. He was also preceded in death by Christopher T. Carney whom he raised as his own son, and a brother Willie Stewart.

Survived by his two children James Carney and Shana Miller, daughter-in-law Delilah Cruz, six grandchildren Nisar Carney, Jaylah Carney, Tatiana Carney, Ny'Layah Carney, Tiarah Miller, and Mylah Miller. His siblings Angela Stewart, Thompson Stornes, and Richard Stewart.

Harry was born in Baltimore, MD and attended Harrisburg Highschool. Spending his summers with family in Maryland. Harry was a lover of music spanning decades and spent hours listening to many of his favorite artists, while singing and dancing, snapping his fingers or tapping his foot to the beats. Harry's affection for horses reflected in his personality. As wild and stubborn as the mustangs that roamed the plains. He lived his life on his own terms, fighting and rebelling to the end. Harry will be dearly missed by many.