“ I grew up "down the hill" from the Youngs. Glen and Barb were older than me, Tom a year younger and we all rode Bus #6. I remember Mick as being a little wild one. Many years later, I played in a band at the VFW and there he was! May he rest in peace

I Remember Harry from school days he had the best funny bone and I often wondered why I never ran into him after school but I tell this story to my kids about the time He was driving to school one snowy morning and wrecked his car and I asked him how it happened and he said he sneezed and ran into a snow bank we laughed and laughed. I can say he was one of a few nice guys back in the day always dressed nice I remember
He always jingled change in his pocket too lol. Sorry for your loss but you will always have wonderful memories 🥰

“ Harry was a friend and classmate of mine at Northern High. He was part of my group of friends. I enjoyed having him as a friend because he was kind and fun. When Barbara called me to inform me of his passing, I felt a sense of loss, even though I only saw him sporadically over the last 20 years or so. That tells you and me how much of a good guy he was. I will miss him.... I send my heartfelt condolences to all of his family and friends. Ron Colvin, Class of '76.

“ Harry was like a big brother from the day we met. We had lots in common. He became part of my family. My husband and kids loved him as such. This is 30 years of friendship. We may not have seen each other weekly, or even monthly, but we knew the other was there. Anyone that ever met Harry immediately felt a kinship with him. He was infectious in the greatest ways. And let's not forget his love of the Hershey Bears. Fly Harry! Be free, and wave to us over your wings. ♡
