

In Hui Berge

October 2, 1943 - October 14, 2021

In Hui Berge, 78, of Camp Hill passed away Thursday, October 14 at Penn State Health Holy Spirit Medical Center. She was the daughter of Kum Son and Hwan Ku Pang, born on October 2, 1943 in Pyongannam-do, Korea. She married Robert Berge on August 7, 1967 at the American Embassy in Seoul, Korea. They were married 48 years until Bob passed away in February, 2015.

In Hui was a devout Catholic and was an early member of the St. Peter Son Korean Catholic Church and never missed Sunday Mass at Saint Theresa Catholic Church. She also loved spending time with her friends and practicing yoga at the West Shore Senior Citizen Center. In Hui had an unbelievable green thumb and enjoyed her vegetable garden and indoor plants. She had an artist's eye for fashion and a natural talent for painting, photography and pottery. In Hui will be remembered as a mother, sister, and friend who loved to laugh and had a vivacious and inquisitive nature. She will be dearly missed by her loved ones, who are comforted by the fact that she is at peace in heaven.

In Hui is survived by her daughter Barbara Berge and her husband Joe Friers, son; Christiaan Berge and his wife Ellen Traupman, two grandchildren; C.J. and Rosemary Berge, brothers; Chung Nam Pang and Chung Do Pang, and sister; Mung Hui Kang.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, October 21 at 12:00pm at Saint

Theresa Roman Catholic Church, New Cumberland. The burial service will be held separately at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, Annville, PA. The family wishes memorial contributions to be made to the National Cemetery Administration (NCA) who honors Veterans and their family members with final resting places to commemorate their service and sacrifice to our great nation.
