“ I just heard of your Dad's passing. I offer my condolences and prayers to all your family. My Mom, Bette Sieger, was a good friend of your Mom and Dad. She grew up with Pauline. I remember your Dad's good nature and smile, even as a child. With sympathy,

“ My Dad, to me, was a great example of a man who cared and provided for us, his family. He unselfishly put the needs of Mom, Steve, and me above himself. Rare today, in this self focused world. As Lisa and I cared for him the final 5 1/2 years of his life, we grew closer as father and son and learned to genuinely love each other. He will be greatly missed. Love you, Pop! See you soon.

“ My Dear Poppy, no one loved family like you. I loved listening to your stories and how much you dreamed for everyone. You never had an unkind word to say about anyone and always had the biggest heart. Spread your wings and Fly with angels with Nanny at you side. Heaven is a much better place with you there. My heart will never be full again. I Love you Poppy

“ My father taught me many things that affected how I led my own life. The most important of these was observing his unbounded love for, and devotion to, his family. He mentored that it was not only OK, but a fundamental expectation that a man would be obvious in his love for his family. His heart was immense with his love for me and my brother Joe and our wives Ellen and Lisa, who he loved as his own daughters. As life went on he found room in his heart for his grandchildren and great grandchildren - what a priceless gift he gave all of us !

Rest in peace Dad, your legacy of love for family will continue to all future generations of Haverls - we learned from a Master.

“ Jake, my special father-in-law, always made me feel like I was the most important person in the room. I loved to listen to his stories and we enjoyed listening to music from the 1940's together. I'm forever grateful for the values he instilled in his oldest son, my husband, Steve. I've been blessed to be a member of this large, fun and big hearted family for over 33 years. There's an empty feeling now that Jake is gone but I'll always remember his warm smile and love of laughter.
