

Jason R. Fair

May 8, 1980 - September 20, 2022

Jason Robert Fair, 42, of Mechanicsburg, passed away unexpectedly at home on Tuesday, September 20, 2022. Jason was born on May 8, 1980, in Camp Hill to the late Jeffrey and Sherryl Fair.

Jason is survived by one daughter, Elle Fair, who was the light of his life. Survivors also include one sister, Elizabeth Anders, and her husband Gary; two nephews, Tyler Plum and Ian Anders; grandparents Mildred Spidle, Bonnie Wilhide, Ronald and Roberta Wilhide. Jason is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends that will miss him immensely.

Jason was a 1998 graduate of East Pennsboro High School and Cumberland Perry Vocational Technical School. Upon his high school graduation, Jason enlisted with the United States Marines and served his country. Most recently Jason was employed as a cook at Metro Diner.

An avid Denver sports fan, Jason could always be found rooting for the Broncos, Avalanche, or Rockies. Jason also enjoyed game nights with friends, playing card games, and always, above all else, spending time with his daughter.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to his daughter to be deposited into a trust for her future education that is being established by Jason's sister. Donations can be made payable to Elle Fair and mailed to Musselman's Funeral Home 324 Hummel Avenue Lemoyne, PA 17043. Memorial services for Jason will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Tribute Wall

EA

“ So many childhood memories in my head right now. Thanks for the memories, the laughs, and all the good times. I love you. Give mom and dad a hug from me.

Elizabeth Anders - September 28, 2022 at 08:29 AM

RT

Beth, I'm so very sorry. Peace and love to you and your family 💜

Robin Townsend - September 28, 2022 at 11:54 AM

JT

Can't believe we'll never have those Wheel of time talks again. I hope the best for the family and his daughter he talk so much about. His friend in the North will remember him jimmy Trottier - September 30, 2022 at 12:03 AM