Jeffry William Anwyll, son of John C. Anwyll and Winifred M. Anwyll, died on February 1, 2015 in Florida from complications following surgery. Jeffry was born on April 29, 1958 in Harrisburg, PA. He attended Cedar Cliff High School and the University of Pittsburgh, majoring in computer science. He was employed in that field for 20 years; first by ADP and Unify Companies, then as a free-lance contractor.

Jeffry decided to turn to music as his endeavor; having studied organ under such notables as Dr. Clippinger, Dr. Lord, Dr. Sider and Dr. Zerani. Jeffry taught piano and organ, performed concerts, and served as organist and choir master in several churches in Pittsburgh. His most recent job was the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan in Clearwater, Florida. Jeffry and his partner, concert violinist Marrietta Orkin, performed as the duo, "Anwyll and Always."

Jeffry is survived by his parents; a sister, Nancy J. Helms and husband,

Michael; a brother, David Anwyl and wife, Jill; and seven nieces and nephews.'
