“There's only a year between my brother Jerry and me so I certainly had a front row seat to many of his antics, like riding his bike into a car that had stopped to avoiding hitting him and when he, accompanied by his partner in crime, our brother John, put a creature under my bed!! But my forever memory of him is of a man who was kind, compassionate and caring and very charitable. He devoted his life to his daughter who has MD and he took care of her the best he could, even moving in with his Ex and Candy so her could contribute more to her care. He went so quickly and I ironically am grateful for that but I will miss his visits, his small and his kind heart

My heart and Mom's heart is truly broken. We love and miss him so much. He had a warped sense of humor and told many funny stories, especially about the farm's psycho rooster. He told us he was happy with us. He was generous with family and friends, including his Scooter-Cat, and Christmas and Halloween were always a big deal to him. We love and miss him so much.
