

John Carpenter Masland

April 7, 2017

John Carpenter Masland, born March 11th, 1958, died unexpectedly April 5th, 2017. John was the son of Isabel Carpenter Masland and the late Daniel L. Masland. He was a 1976 graduate of Camp Hill High School and 1981 graduate of Lehigh University. He was a Civil Engineer, pursuing his career beginning at Gannett Fleming and later leading the geotechnical division of ARM Group. He developed a love for cooking with daughter Dani and passed his love of travel to daughter Darby. He loved his devoted wife Beth, and shared his passion of rescuing dogs with her and his girls, and the extended family. He was an avid bicyclist and creative woodworker who loved crossword puzzles. He found joy in the beauty of their home along the Yellow Breeches creek, feeding the squirrels, ducks, birds and deer. He is survived by his wife Elizabeth Goodyear Masland, and daughters Darby V. Masland and Danielle C. Masland and her fiancé Taylor Parris. They join his mother and sisters, Leslie Masland and Carol Gleeson (husband Mark) and many nieces and nephews, in-laws, and extended family who grieve his passing. He was much loved by all. A celebration of life will be held at 1:00 PM on Monday, April 10th at South Middleton Park pavilion next to the Yellow Breeches Creek at 534 Park Drive, Boiling Springs, PA 17007, arrangements by Musselman's Funeral Home. Casual dress. Visitation and refreshments with family following the services. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Humane Society of Harrisburg or Lab Rescue of Central PA.
