

Judith K. Bacon

December 12, 1953 - April 3, 2021

It is with immense sadness that we announce the sudden passing of our beloved wife and mother, Judith K Bacon, 67. She was born on Dec 12th, 1953, in Huntingdon, PA. She graduated from Cedar Cliff High school and Bloom Medical College.

Judy is survived by her husband of 44 years, Carl Bacon. Her two sons, Jason Bacon and his husband Andrew and Justin Bacon and his husband Tazz. Also, her two sisters Patricia Gibboney and Nancy Hidden. She is preceded in death by her parents Edwin and Marie Harshbarger.

Judy had an unconditional love for her granddaughter Ariyanna Hope Taylor. Their bond was unbreakable. She was the mother of 2 biological sons but had become “Mom” to many members of the LGBTQ+ Community in Central Pa and beyond. She had an open heart and hug for anyone that she encountered.

She worked for Womyn’s First OBGYN for 48 years as their appointment secretary, she was the “voice” of the office. She was a member of TOPS, PFLAG, and sold Avon for many years. She loved lighthouses, music and Angels which guided her in her faith and beliefs. Her smile and joyful attitude could make your day brighter just by one conversation with her. This is a tremendous loss to those that knew and loved her.

A public viewing will be held at Musselman Funeral Home in Lemoyne on Wednesday, April 14th from 5pm to 7pm. A private graveside service for Family and Close friends will be on Thurs Apr 15th at Rolling Green Cemetery in Camp Hill.

“ Judy went to the same school as I did. That is how we met. Judy had a beautiful smile and was kind. Once in awhile I would see her and her family at the Italian restaurant in Mechanicsburg PA and always talked about how things were going. Praying for the family as they go through the loss of Judy. She is no longer in pain and will be your guardian angel till you see each other again
