“ I knew Trina from Gilbert Associates. While my work and hers overlapped only a little, I also knew her from playing softball. Both at work and on the field she was a breath of fresh air in an environment abounding in sexism (and a bunch of other isms). She handled the situation with grace and unfailing good humor. She was intelligent, outgoing and dedicated. When my group was laid off, I lost touch with everyone who remained at Gilberts, so I never learned of her disability until her passing. Even though many years have passed, she will remain in my memory. A good person - who left us far too young.
