

Kathryn D. Hess

February 5, 1930 - March 12, 2025

Kathryn Delores “Dimpy” Hess, 95, passed peacefully on March 12, 2025, at home. She was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, to Arthur W. and Edna M. (Bistline) Martin on February 5, 1930. After graduating from Carlisle High School, she worked at Claremont Nursing Home as an LPN. She also enjoyed helping with concessions at Williams Grove Park. Her life was devoted to her husband, Dick, and son, Bill. She never met a stranger and was beloved by everyone she met. A gorgeous smile, an infectious laugh, a steadfast believer in being kind. A lover of all things life brought her way. She was a fierce competitor and lost (rarely) graciously. She enjoyed shopping, bowling, tennis, golf, racquetball, shuffleboard, card games, little dolls, dancing Santas, colorful sneakers, head rubs, back scratches... the list goes on and on. Most importantly, she loved her family. As her family grew, she was never happier than when surrounded by grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Those babies brought her so much joy.

When not traveling, she could be found sipping tea on her front porch, sitting at the kitchen nook, or sitting next to Grandpa in their recliners, watching TV together. She loved and was loved. At age 95, she was called to be with the Lord, her son, Bill and daughter-in-law, Marilyn by her side... Almost as if she had planned it that way.

Kathryn is survived by her son William D. Schemeck, wife Marilyn, of Enola, Pennsylvania, grandchildren Aaron W., wife Brooke, Christopher J., wife Jessica, and Allison R., partner DeAndre, as well as eight great-grandchildren, sister Lois Yingst, and brother Richard Martin, wife Vonnie. She is preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, Richard J. Hess.

A viewing will be held at 10:00AM, Friday, March 21, 2025, at Musselman Funeral Home, Lemoyne, Pennsylvania, with a service at 11:00AM. Burial will immediately follow at Rolling Green Cemetery, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania.

“ Mama, it was a rude shock to hear that you have passed. I still remember your laughter especially when we are dancing. I remember how tidy you always want to look; all dressed and in your sports shoes. I remember how you rub my back in appreciation when I bend over to get you ready for the day. I remember how you would always ask of your soul-mate, Mr Dick “where is Dick?”. I remember how much you loved chocolate milk, Mac and cheese and chocolates. I remember how you liked warm places, your soft voice of “I’m cold “. You were a very pleasant woman! Each time I remember you, it’s always about something that will make me smile. You are always on my mind. Onyi miss you. May your gentle soul rest in the bosom of the Lord.

“ I have been amazingly blessed, not only to have married the love of my life, Richard Martin, but to have gained entrance into his amazing family. The two sisters he gifted me, Dimps and Toots, along with their most lovely families are a treasure to me. Dimps, as I called her, lit up any family event with her infectious smile, laughter, and the homemade tapioca! Taco nights by the creek were always a super fun family time. And shopping with Dimps was always an adventure, usually ending in only my fatigue, as I felt I was with the ever-ready bunny. “Where are we going next Von?” was repeated more often than I expected from my Sissy, who was 18 years my senior. ...and the back rubs I gave that woman in later life, would never have ended on her say. Dimps, your love, kindness, laughter, and warmth will be sorely missed. Rest in peace dear Angel! Vonnie Martin “ Dimpy will always be remembered as a "beautiful soul". I knew her growing up at the Grove. She was so kind, always smiling, she was a positive memory in my growing up years. My deepest sympathy to her family.
