

Kenneth C. Bowman

November 26, 1940 - March 26, 2026

Kenneth C. Bowman, 85, of Lower Allen Township, PA, passed away on Thursday, March 26, 2026 at UPMC West Shore Hospital peacefully with family members by his side. Kenny was born on November 26, 1940 in Reading, PA and was the son of the late Beatrice Bowman.

Kenny retired as an independent contractor for The Patriot-News following many years of dedicated service. He also proudly served his country as a member of the Air National Guard. An avid horseman, Kenny found great joy at Penn National Race Course, where his horses competed under the stable name Bizzy B, among others. He was actively involved in the horse racing community, serving on the HBPA Board of Directors and attending conventions throughout the years. Kenny cherished his time wintering in Florida, traveling, and relaxing by his pool during the summer months. If Kenny could find sunshine, that's where you would find him.

Kenny is survived by his loving wife of 52 years, Billie Faye Bowman, his daughters Barbara Kocher (Marc), Jane Filippelli (Nick), Sandra Coder (Chris), grandchildren, Ross Kocher (Hannah), Ben Kocher, Allison Filippelli, Audrey LaVallee (Lance), John Posavec Jr., Jack Matthews, great-grandchildren, Garrett, Hannah, Collin, Ty, Penny, his brother Bill Bowman (Nancy), brother-in-law George Preble, sister-in-laws, Ruth Ann George (Jeff), Audrey Matthews and a host of nieces and nephews. Kenny was preceded in death by his sister Janet Preble, son Daniel Noone, and great-grandson Connor.

The family wants to extend their gratitude to Lower Allen EMS and UPMC West Shore Hospital ICU for their exceptional care of Kenny and the compassion shown to his family.

A visitation will be held at 10:00am, Thursday, April 9, 2026, at Musselman Funeral Home, Lemoyne, Pennsylvania. Services will immediately follow at 11:00am.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to a charity of your choice.
