“ Hello, I would like to extend my sympathies to Kenny’s family. Kenny was my father’s cousin (Jim Priebe) and they were quite fond of each other. I last saw Kenny when he attended my Dad’s funeral in 2010. He was a great guy.

“ My most sincere condolences to Kennys’ family. I worked with Kenny on the force and he got me a part time job with A.W. Brown awnings. He was an exemplary policeman and one I looked up to. We shared a love of hunting and fishing and I particularly remember hunting a farm in Bernville with Kenny and Forrest. After his retirement from the force I used to stop at St. Joes Hospital to see him during my shift. I was sad to lose touch with him after his retirement from his security position at the hospital. God bless Kenny and the family.
Sincerely,
Phil Santoro
