

Khai N. Tran

December 4, 1933 - November 3, 2020

Khai Tran, 87, of North Myrtle Beach SC and Shiremanstown PA, passed away peacefully on the morning of Tuesday, November 3, 2020 among family members.

He was born in Viet Nam and served in the VN Air Force as a pilot, and later retired from Gannett Fleming, Inc. in Camp Hill where he worked for 19 years as a Drafting Technician. He enjoyed fishing, listening to music, traveling, walking on the beach with his wife, and spending time with friends and family, especially with grandchildren Brittany Sebastian, Christina Sebastian, Mason Elliott, and Norah Elliott.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Nguyet Anh, and daughters and their spouses, Anh Dao & Cameron Sebastian and Truc Anh & Shawn Elliott, and son Khoa Tran, as well as very close extended family members who have shared laughter and tears in every step of life's journey. He will be greatly missed.

A thank you to the caring members of Kindred Hospice who were so kind and helpful with their support.

Services will be held at the discretion of the family. Burial will be at Rolling Green Cemetery, Camp Hill, PA.
