“ When I was a teenager in college, I worked at Arby's in Camp Hill at the shopping center. Mr. Bushman and a friend used to come in often to drink coffee. He would often talk to me. He even gave me a math book and some genealogy information. After I left Arby's for my full time job in 1985, I didn't see him anymore, but I often thought about him. I am glad to find out that he had a good long life and retirement. It seemed to me that he was retired already back then. Now I am retired. What goes around comes around. I offer my condolences to his family and friends.
