“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Lisa and I first became friends as little kids way back in Sunday school at Grace UMC on Hummel Ave (probably giggling when we shouldn't have been) and on through high school. She was always so sweet and kind with such a warm smile. I haven't lived in PA for many years now and wasn't aware she was so ill. May you all find peace and comfort in your precious memories of her.

Difficult saying goodbye to my sister after 66 years together on this earth but knowing she is no longer in pain and at peace makes it less painful. Rest In Peace little sis. I love you

“ To my Uncle Elmer and her family. Memory is not clear only those days at Fern Lawn as kids. Hard to believe we have drifted so far apart. I live less than 2 miles from the Deckman farm on a farm on East Siddonsburg Road. Under the flag. Prayers for the family.
