

Mabel I. Jackson

July 1, 1931 - November 12, 2022

Mabel I. Jackson, 91, a long-time resident of Camp Hill passed away Saturday, November 12, 2022, at UPMC West Shore Hospital. Born July 1, 1931 in Halifax, Pennsylvania, Mabel was the daughter of late Charles Wilbert and Carrie Warfel Wilbert.

Mabel was an avid member of Camp Hill United Methodist Church as well as the West Shore Garden Club and the West Shore Chapter 1465 NARFE.

Mabel most enjoyed gardening, loved her granddog and spending time with her family.

She attended Halifax High School.

Surviving is Mabel's daughter; Bonnie Pirello of Camp Hill, two sisters-in-law Marie Wilbert and Marilyn Wilbert as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by her husband William "Bill" Jackson who passed away in 1961, as well as two brothers Roy and William Wilbert, and a sister Helen Hoffman

Tribute Wall

“ Mabel was a valued member of our Sunday School class, and it has been hard not having her sweet spirit in attendance for a couple years. She was a wonderful lady, kind, quiet and caring. I have missed seeing her and saddened that I can't visit her. Sincere condolences to here family.

Linda Armstrong - November 21, 2022 at 07:08 PM