

Margaret K. Davis

April 2, 1933 - May 6, 2022

Margaret Stewart Davis, a resident of Lemoyne Pennsylvania, passed away at age 89 on May 6, 2022.

Margaret, the second oldest of eight children, was born in April 1933 in Darien, GA. She attended Darien public schools and earned a bachelor's degree in bible from Tennessee Temple University. Margaret was actively involved with her church, serving and following God with great devotion. She loved gardening, particularly pulling weeds, becoming somewhat famous in the town of Senoia, GA where she was known as the "Weed Fairy" for pulling weeds all about town. She also loved interior decorating and was an avid reader.

Margaret Davis is survived by her son, Judson Davis and his wife, Stormy, of Mechanicsburg PA; three granddaughters, Logann Davis, Jacqui Davis and Jorgi McLaughlin; two sisters; and four brothers.

A Celebration of Life for Margaret will be announced at a later date.
