“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss. I met Mrs. Lundgren when I was fresh out of college and getting my teaching position. I wound up in the Harrisburg Schhol Distict (still here close to 30 years later). I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Mrs. Lundgren during her role as a special education assistant. I was young and naive and didn't realize until I had some time in what a wonderful, kind, and caring, person she was. I gained a wealth of knowledge from her on how to be an amazing teacher as she was. I have yet to meet another person in my life that could compare with her genuine gifts. God bless you Mrs. Lundeen and he has also blessed me and the hundreds of children who have had the luck to have met you! Whenever I've thought about you, I've always felt blessed and a feelings of gratitude, love, and envy..I pray I some of your wonderful qualities have rubbed off on me. ❤️

“ I am Maye's first cousin, Linda. My mother, Blanche, was Joe's sister. I remember Maye as a kind, gracious lady who gave me the privilege of being the flower girl in her wedding. My brother, Dick, was the ring bearer. As you can tell from the picture, he was shy, and I was not.

Looking through the old pictures that came from my mother, I found this one of Maye with her siblings and cousins. In the back are Shirley, Jeanne, George, Bob, and Maye. The little guys down in front are Dick, Maynard, Warren, and John. I believe those are the right names with the right people. The third picture is my uncle Joe's family with Maye on the right side.
