

Mary Jane Wrightstone

May 3, 1929 - April 18, 2016

Mary Jane Wrightstone of Lower Allen Township, Camp Hill, PA died Monday, April 18, 2016 at Bethany Village. Born on May 3, 1929, Lemoyne. She was the daughter of the late Benjamin J. Byerly and Muriel Ream Byerly. Mary Jane was a graduate of Lemoyne High School.

Mary Jane retired from the former CCNB bank in Lemoyne where she enjoyed a variety of work. She attended Grace Lutheran Church in Camp Hill while raising her family and worked in the church office. In recent years she returned to her childhood church Trinity Evangelical Lutheran in Lemoyne, where she enjoyed many hours of quilting with the Hummingbirds. Mary Jane's passion was gardening. She was an avid rose grower belonging to the Greater Harrisburg Rose Society where she held many positions over the years. When she could not be outside working in her garden she found solace in her greenhouse among the many orchids.

Mary Jane was the widow of Robert G. Wrightstone. She is survived by her sons Michael and his wife Sally, and Robert G. Wrightstone Jr. In addition, she is survived by her brother Benjamin Byerly. Preceding her in death were her brothers John and Richard.

Following Mary Jane's wishes a private graveside service was held at Rolling Green Memorial Park with the Pastor David Schreffler officiating.

Any contributions to honor Mary Jane can be sent to the Helen O. Krause Animal Foundation in Dillsburg, PA.

“ Mary Jane was my favorite aunt - small, forever bubbly & perky with a rapier sharp wit. winter. I miss her Christmas card letters, her wit and talking with her. Here's a virtual hug Aunt Mary Jane, but not too tight as you always kidded.
