“ So sorry to hear that Mel went to be with Jesus. Happy for him but sad for those who will miss him. I enjoyed sitting by Mel and Pat in the back section at CLA and the friendship they showed to me. The hands and feet of Jesus.

“ What an amazing amazing person!!! Mel was truly my church grandpa growing up and I will never forget his impact in my life. He made me so many beautiful gifts, such as a ring, 2 jewelry boxes, and a beautiful painting. He truly was a beautiful testimony of Christ and showed His love to others so wonderfully.

“ I can not put fully into words the impact of knowing this beautiful man of God had on my life. I will forever remember the days of being in the choir with him and all the kind words that you can tell he genuinely meant. He is now with our Lord celebrate a job well done thy good and faithful servant. Until we meet again my dear friend.
