

Michael Scott Clouser

December 16, 1959 - January 28, 2023

Michael Scott Clouser, 63, passed peacefully at his home in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on January 28, 2023. He was born on December 16, 1959, to the late Lenus C. Clouser and Jennie Mae (Weaver) Clouser in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Raised in Marysville, Pennsylvania, Michael worked as machinist for many years, a stagehand in Hershey, and retired from Mechanicsburg Senior High School. He took pride in his work and any task he took on, never giving any less than 100%.

He was a natural born father and put everything he had into that position. He may have only had one child biologically, but many of his daughter's friends came to see him as a father figure and he made it clear that they were welcomed with an open-door policy. Always offering an ear to listen, advice, and a safe comfortable place if they just needed somewhere to be.

He was funny, so funny. He had a very quick wit, a comeback for absolutely everything. A sense of humor that always pushed the limits and he really enjoyed ruffling the feathers of anyone he could (especially his sisters). He never grew out of his little brother syndrome. He was kind, selfless, and offered help to anyone and everyone that he felt may have needed it. He loved fiercely and was very passionate about the things that mattered to him. He relished spending time with his grandkids. His grandson became his best friend from the moment he was born.

Michael is survived by his daughter Jessica, husband Ross Graham, sisters Frances L. Schell and Donna R. Farrell, grandchildren Joshua Michael and Stella Mae, as well as four nieces and nephews, six great-nieces and great-nephews, and seven great-great-nieces and great-great-nephews. He is preceded in death by his sister June A. Hill and a nephew, Derek L. Hill.

“ Mike was a great guy and helped in so many ways. Mike played a very big role to me. Mike helped raise me when I was a kid. He taught me a lot of things in the time I had him as a stepfather. I always did look up to him as my father as mine wasn't around much. Mike you will be missed by so many people cause you always did take everyone in as 1 of your own. My condolences goes out to his family and especially his daughter Jessica.
