“ Judy and family, Mike and go back to Junior High, and he was a part of our posse, I think there were 5, and I am the last one standing. I was going to meet up with ya'll at Myrtle Beach this winter. I was not aware he was ill. God will I miss him. Appropriate or not me, Mike, another Mike, and Butch smoked our first joint listening to Iron Butterfly in Mike's Dad's travel trailer, black light strobe and all with psychedelic posters everywhere. And then down the road we ran into a tying called life and grew up. I loved him like a brother, him and his sister may she RIP. He was an awesome family man and I loved him. Be well and prayers of comfort Judy. I know in my heart I will be with him again as will you all. God Bless, much love Michael Arrington

“ I worked with Mike at Pennsy Supply. Always had a smile on his face and laughing about something. He definitely greeted you with a kind word or smile and you started or ended your day easier because of him. Rest easy friend and my deepest condolences and prayers for your family.

Cousin Mike; you will be so missed. So many childhood memories of time spent together. Summers at Grandma Welch's. Christmas with you, Beverly & Aunt Margaret & Uncle Paul. Travel trailer trips. Mike always called to meet when he came to Charlotte from PA. So appreciated him. His Welch cousins will miss him.

“Mr. Mike was a shining light at Pennsy Supply. He loved what he did, servicing customers and always brought a great attitude to work. Even through his recent struggles, Mike was worried about when he could return to work. I always said "Mike, take care of you first" but he wanted to be working. It's been a pleasure knowing Mike for over 20 years and most recently being his Manager. His Pennsy Supply family will miss him greatly but we know how much he has been going through and he is finally at peace and free of pain. Rest Easy Mr. Mike.

I am very saddened to hear the news about Mike. He will be greatly missed. Unfortunately, I never had the pleasure of meeting Mike in person or even knowing his last name; however, I did consider him a friend. A Pennsy friend! What a great asset he was to Pennsy! He was much more than just a voice in my phone. It was always enjoyable speaking to Mike. He always had a friendly and helpful demeanor, no matter how many times I might speak to him within an hour or within an 8 hour period. Even on his bad days, he was pleasant and pushed through. Often times, he'd laugh and make fun of himself. I'm thankful I had the opportunity to work with him and the pleasure of knowing him! I will greatly miss chatting with him!! Rest easy my friend! ❤️

Mrs. Craig & family: I'm sending my sincere thoughts, prayers & condolences. May your memories, along with the love everyone had for Mike, surround you and help you find some peace and comfort during this difficult time.

With deepest sympathy,
