

Michael T. Stewart

September 7, 2016

Michael T. Stewart, 74 of Etters, passed away on his wedding anniversary, while heroically opposing the forces of cancer, Wednesday, September 7th 2016. This hard working, Jack of all Trades, free spirit who marched to the beat of his own drum was born on November 29, 1941 in Harrisburg and was a son to the late Martin W. Stewart and Margaret L. (Oyler) Stewart. Michael was a self-employed home builder and was a “do it yourselfer” designing and planning up until 2 weeks before his passing. He had a wide array of interests and was a Christian author of three books (“A Change of Season”, “The Army of God” and “The Devouring Lion”). He was a member of Christ Community Church of Camp Hill where he served on 2 Prophetic Teams. He served in the U.S. Army and the Pennsylvania Reserves (It was during this time that he met his beloved wife).

Surviving is his loving wife of 53 years Linda M. (Kramer) Stewart; his son Thomas M. Stewart with wife Jennifer (Evans) Stewart and their children Zachary and Megan; daughters, Margaret M. (Stewart) Grubic with husband John Grubic and Deborah L. Stewart with husband Alan Lopata. He is predeceased by brothers Martin F. and Ronald W. Stewart.

Funeral Services will be held on Monday, September 12, 2016 at 11:00 A.M. at the Musselman Funeral Home, 324 Hummel Avenue, Lemoyne, PA. Pastor David E. Hess will be officiating. A viewing will be held from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Rolling Green Cemetery, 1811 Carlisle Road, Camp Hill, PA.

Donations in memory of Michael may be made to Christ Community Church, 1201 Slate Hill Road, Camp Hill, PA. 17011.

Musselman Funeral Home Is Honored To Serve The Stewart Family.

“ Its a sad loss. He was diagnosed with a heart problem the surgen said he didn't need post surgery and was bleeding inside after. He was mysteriously diagnosed with cancer causing his death only 2 weeks if that, while still in hospital recovering from unnessary heart surgery.Its so sad when things like this happen to anyone much more so such a kind hearted soul. What a world. Please pray for his family.
