Mildred Susan Fair Spidle, a beloved matriarch and active community member, passed away peacefully on December 25, 2024, at the age of 94. Born on November 2, 1930, to William N. and Frances E. Diehl, she was known to many as Millie.

A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, Mildred dedicated her life to family and community. Her passion for travel led her to organize countless bus trips to baseball games, New York City, and other exciting destinations.

In her leisure time, Mildred found joy in crocheting, cross-stitching, solving crossword puzzles, and indulging in couponing and mail sweepstakes. Her warm and generous spirit touched the lives of all who knew her.

Mildred was preceded in death by her husbands, Robert Fair, Steve Marinchak, and John Spidle; her siblings, Alvin "Jim" Diehl, Frank Diehl, Newt

Diehl, Betty Rudy (Diehl), and Agnes Hodges (Diehl); her foster son, Jeffrey Finley; her son, daughter-in-law, and grandson, Jeffrey, Sheryl, and Jason Fair, and her nephew Boyd Rudy.
