Nadine L. St. Jean, 68, of Middletown, Pennsylvania, passed away unexpectedly at Penn State Hershey Medical Center, Hershey, Pennsylvania, on June 26, 2026. She was the loving daughter of the late Laurent & June St. Jean of Coventry, Rhode Island.

A sister to David St. Jean of Highland, New York, Michael St. Jean, Steven & Debbie St. Jean, and Laurianne Kaplan all of Coventry, Rhode Island, and Thomas and Kim St. Jean of Cranston, Rhode Island, as well as having nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews.

She was predeceased by her sister Sharon Kelley of Fiskeville, Rhode Island. Though her time with us was short, she will be forever remembered for her warm smile, rowdy jokes, legendary Chowder & Clam Cakes, Jumbo Cookies, and crafting work. Generations of family members will be kept warm by her beautiful, crocheted afghans.

Her family mourns her passing and are forever grateful for her love. Her Schneider Electric family mourns their "Mom" the glue that kept their Universal Returns Center running.

A private ceremony was held at her request.
