“ Pat was a wonderful person, wife, mother, mother in law, anunt and grandmother. I remember visiting her and Fred in 1963 when my grandmother Kuhn pasted away. She was a great cook and prepared a great meal for our family. Later in life she and her good friend Bob visited me when I was living in Alaska. We did a lot of sight seeing, including a flight around Mt. McKinley and landing on the Ruth glacier (where the climbers who climb Mt. McKinley stage) and walking around. It was a beautifully sunny day which made for a fantastic flight (we lucked out). My last visit with Aunt Pat was last year 2019 after the last Kuhn reunion. She was in good sprits and all of us, (Sue, Barbara and Jayne) had a great visit. Pat will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
