“ Heavens what I could say, I could go on and on. I remember I wanted to learn driving and get my license and my sister said go see Richard “dick”. I said no everyone was scared of him he was so loud and if u did t know what a gentle he was you thought he was scary . Turned out he was a big gentle father figure with a heart big as Texas and he’d do anything for you. Sure enough I asked and he looked at me without hesitation said be here Monday. He took me under his wing and taught me so much. Till this day I still tell stories to my kids of the good times I had OTR with him and when I think of dick I smile and light up. I loved that old man and will forever cherish the memories and the lessons. Love ya dick rest in peace and can’t wait to see ya again.
