“ I was saddened to see that Bob passed away. He was a subcontractor of Lobar, Inc. I worked at the front desk so I was the one who he would see first. He always had a smile and was very happy person. He was not only a client but a friend. I remember that when he closed his business, he made it a point to stop by our office and let us know that he enjoyed working with us. My sympathy to the family. Rest in Peace Bob.

“ As a founding member of the Iron Ridge band I remember Bob setting in the audience many many times he would always have smile on his face. He truly loved the music that we were doing and would always have a kind word. Rest in peace Bob until we meet again. Denny, Jay, Max and Len, current members of the Iron Ridge band.
