

Samuel Richard Malis

December 23, 1994 - July 29, 2016

Samuel (Sam) Richard Malis, 21, of Camp Hill, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, July 29, 2016 at his home. A son of Jill (Suden) and the late Henry Malis, he was born in Harrisburg on December 23, 1994.

He was a high school graduate of Camp Hill High School and attended Shippensburg University, where he was in the Kappa Delta Phi fraternity. Sam was in automotive sales, and excelled in selling cars.

Sam was one of a kind; a beautiful soul. He was an amazing friend, a beloved son and brother. He was genuine, selfless, hilarious, and kindhearted. He would always see the funny side of people and life. His charisma could light up a room instantly, and his sense of humor left everyone laughing with tears of joy. His love of fishing ran deep, as he would leave work and fish the river in his work clothes just so he wouldn't miss a bite.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Selma Malis and brother, Colton Kyle. Sam is survived by his mother; Jill, stepfather; David Kyle, brothers; Jake and Will Malis and Chase Kyle, maternal grandparents; Joan (Benson) and Don Suden, uncles; Roy and Maddy Malis and Bill and Linda Markley, as well as numerous other family, cousins, and friends.

A visitation will be held at 12:00 PM on Friday, August 5, 2016 at Daybreak Church, 321 Gettysburg Pike, Mechanicsburg with a memorial service immediately following at 1:00 PM.
