

Sarah E. Bowen

March 14, 1925 - April 15, 2022

Sarah E. (Critchley) Bowen, 97, formerly of Lemoyne, PA, lived an amazing life until the Lord called her home on Friday evening, April 15, 2022, at Country Meadows, Mechanicsburg, where she resided for over 15 years. Born March 14, 1925, in Lemoyne, PA, she was a daughter of the late Luther F. and Laura M. (Wrightstone) Critchley. A 1942 graduate of the former Lemoyne High School, she was employed by the Ralston Purina Company, Camp Hill, where she retired after 29 years to do some traveling with her husband, Bill, in their camper. Sarah was a lifelong member of Calvary U.M. Church, Lemoyne, beginning at 10 days old and attending until the church closed in June 2020, probably the longest attending member. She touched the lives of many youths who attended Calvary, serving as Youth Advisor for over 25 years; served on numerous committees, and was an active member of the JOY Class and Circle Meetings. She was an avid reader and sports fan; loved to cook, bake, sew, do word puzzles, and play cards. Summers would not be complete without a family vacation to Rehoboth Beach, DE.

She is survived by her daughter, Marsha (Larry) Shoop of Mechanicsburg, granddaughter Brenda Buckwalter (Dave) of Etters, grandson Gregory Shoop of Mechanicsburg, great grandson Brady Buckwalter, daughter in law Elizabeth Acri Bowen, formerly of Enola, now The Villages, Florida, and numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, William H. Bowen, son Larry T. Bowen, brothers Luther and Henry Critchley, and sister Catherine (Neff).
