

Timothy R. Basom

January 28, 1967 - December 26, 2023

Timothy R. Basom, 56, passed away peacefully at UPMC Memorial York Hospital on December 26, 2023. He was born on January 28, 1967, in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, to E. Scott Basom and Martha L. (Davis) Basom.

Even though Tim could not communicate through words, he could express himself to those he loved through affectionate hugs, smiles, and laughter. Tim also had a playful mischievous nature when spending time with those he loved. Tim enjoyed being around people and “people watching.” He enjoyed music like the Lawrence Welk Show and Sound of Music, and he would clap to express his delight. Tim enjoyed the simple things with his child-like spirit. He cherished his Play-Doh, watching Disney, and his favorite characters Cookie Monster and Donald Duck. Tim loved his outings to McDonald’s with his parents after church on Sunday for chicken nuggets and ice cream. Tim’s parents adored him and provided many years of loving care, a special love which Tim fully returned.

Tim is preceded in death by his loving parents. He is survived by his brothers Michael Basom, Stephen Basom, and David Basom, sister Sharon Woodruff, and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ Tim would take his dihhh and yell turkey!!! This was the start of a terrible yet funny moment, he then would bend over and stick his dick between his legs poking out the other side will cranking it. He would chase all the kids around and all the adults would laugh unless he busted on one of the kids. I rejoice because he is burning in hell and nutting on the devil especially during November.

“ Out of all the people I held dear and close to my heart Tim was the most compassionate. Even though he took a shit in my pillow case and went naked screaming profanity at my 2 year old daughters birthday party, he still knew how to get around. Though he was the ripe old age of 56 when he sadly passed, Timothy could always get me up. Thank you for all the special moments. I would always love it when you wore your favorite pink little dress and I would call you tiny Tim. You will be missed.

“ Tim was such a great guy he was had a smile unless he was wanking off at Susie's birthday party. His teachers may not have loved him but I did. The feeling is only a feeling you can get when taking it up the butt.

“ I will always remember how Tim would take my hand and rub his face with it whenever he saw me. He always smiled and he loved his mom. He would always grab her hand and hold it. I rejoice with Tim because he is finally free and walking those beautiful streets of gold.
