“ Tim was always the fun one! Loved to laugh, go on walks behind grandma's house after Easter lunch, play hang man with me, make funny faces for me n my bros, watch movies, bring us snacks from BB's, make delicious cakes, chug every drink, have good burp n fart contests, and just sit n talk.

You shall be missed, but I know your rockin' it out with Jesus in the Heavens!!!!

"When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness. What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death! But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Timmy always made me laugh. He had a heart of solid gold. He was a good listener and just the best friend you could ever want. He would help anyone . He judged no one and loved all. I adored my time sitting next to him at work. He made the nights fun. He loved listening to songs on my ipod and just talking about so many things. I used to bring him food I knew he liked and his face would just light up in the biggest smile. I miss him so much.he really loved the McDonald's buttermilk chicken sandwich.he loved food and I miss hearing him talk about it. The first time I met him at work we were instant friends. His love shined bright and many were drawn to him. Rest in peace dear Timmy.i will love you always.
