

William Landis Earley, IV

November 23, 1973 - June 15, 2016

William L Earley IV, 42 years old, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday June 15th, 2016 at his home.

Bill was born November 23, 1973 to the late William L Earley III and Glenda M (Hamilton) Miller. Bill was a graduate of East Pennsboro High School (1991). He was employed by XPO Logistics in Carlisle.

Bill was very free spirited, often lifting others around him no matter the situation. He enjoyed all things music, playing in several rock, alternative, and Christian bands within his life. Bill was one of the special bright lights within his Mother's heart. He had many friends due to his kind heart, caring & sensitive nature, wonderful sense of humor and wit, big smile and infectious laughter.

Bill is survived by his twin daughters, who he loved immensely beyond measure, Alana and Morgan Earley (12 years old); his estranged wife, Heather; his beloved mother, Glenda Miller and husband George; his step-father, Earl Vogelsong; his brother, Joseph Vogelsong and wife Carrie; step-sisters, April Miller and fiancé Josh, and Holly Resetar and husband Colin; his nephew, Griffin Vogelsong; step-nieces, Bailey and Scarlett Resetar; many aunts, uncles and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully requests memorial contributions are made in Bill's memory to Cornerstone Fellowship Assembly of God, 32 South Front Street, Wormleysburg, PA 17043.

There will be no public services at the funeral home; however, Bill's many friends are welcomed at the graveside service, Friday, June 24, 2016 at 12:30 PM at Tri-County Memorial Gardens, 740 Wyndamere Road, Lewisberry, Pa.
