

Zachary "Zach" Alan Myers

December 22, 1992 - October 1, 2017

Zachary "Zach" Alan Myers, 24, of New Cumberland, passed away on October 1, 2017 from the disease of addiction. Please do not let him losing his battle with this disease define him. Many only knew Zach through the lens of the addiction. That was not the real Zach and those fortunate enough to truly know him recognized that there was more to him than just that.

He is survived by his daughter, Oakley Anne Myers, his mother and step-father, Shanna and Joseph Lauck of Carlisle, and his father Troy Myers, his sister Madison Myers and fiancé Roudly Lolo of Camp Hill.

He is also survived by his grandmother, Glenda Houser, cousins Sarah and Corey Junkins and Hannah Keefer all of New Cumberland. Great grandparents, Paul and Doris Bowen of New Cumberland, his uncle and aunt David and Joann and cousin Christopher Bowen all of Etters, and cousins Meghan and Matt Sheraw of New Cumberland and many other aunts, uncles and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his grandfather, Harry E. Houser, Jr., his aunt Kim "Kimmy" Houser-Keefer, grandfather, Stephen Gaumer and grandparents Dean and Deb Myers.

Growing up he was just like any other young man, he was active in sports playing baseball and football as a child and playing on the Cedar Cliff High School football and wrestling teams. Zach was also a proud member of the Cedar Cliff High School JROTC program. He was known as the class clown, always the life of the party and always had to have the last word. With his charismatic and sparking personality he easily made friends. He was a huge Penn State and Eagles Fan, who loved to fish, hunt and being outdoors. Zach also loved Volkswagens, brewery memorabilia, tattoos and his beautiful daughter Oakley!

You may ask why we are sharing this personal part of Zach's life through social media. By doing so hopefully we can shed some light on this devastating and overwhelming epidemic in our community. In life, one bad decision can make a huge impact on not just you, but also those who love and care for you.

If you have any loved ones who are fighting with addiction, Zach's family ask that you do everything possible to be as supportive as possible and guide them to the resources that are available before it is too late.

In honoring Zach's wishes a Celebration of Life will be held on October 8, 2017 from 1 pm to 4 pm at the American Legion Post #143, 214 Market Street, New Cumberland, PA.

At Zach's request, at his Celebration, everyone is asked to wear camo.

Memorial donations may be made to the address below, to be placed in a trust fund for Zach's daughter, Oakley Anne Myers c/o Members First Bank, 325 S. 10th Street, Lemoyne, PA 17043.

“ It's been a while now. I miss you man. You were like a brother to me. Rest easy friend til we meet again

“ I knew you through out high school. You were always in the dungeon with me when you were in JROTC and I was in Mrs Pines. To be honest you got on my nerves but you grew on me after awhile. I remember all the stupid things you used to say and do just to make someone smile. I'll never forget the time we snuck away from the bonfire at school to smoke on the tennis courts, or the time you sprayed my house with a fire extinguisher at my going away party after high school. I was so mad, I am pretty sure we haven't spoken much since. However, if I could say anything to you, I would remind you that you are a ray of sunshine in a very dark world, that you're someone who would do anything to get a laugh from someone regardless of what you were going through yourself. I would tell you that your friendship means so much to a lot of people. I would tell you that without you the world would be a much darker place. But I didn't, and I can't. The world truly lost a star of a spirit when you left, and I wish somehow we could have saved you. RIP & much love.

“ It's been years, and we didn't hang out much, but I'll never forget the day we met. You and a mutual friend came and woke me up and you carried me down the stairs and outside and said we were going to jump off a bridge. . . And we did. Hands down, the best experience I've ever had meeting someone. That is the you I remember. Never shy (or quiet) and always the life of the party. Fly high and watch over that beautiful little girl.
